i didnt expect it

i really loved it. As a long time fan of Leisure Suit Larry games I found this one to be very enjoyable. the story could have been longer, but the game was fun none the less.

Hope to see more Leisure Suit Larry games from CrazyBunch as they have the right idea about Leisure Suit Larry. I do hope any future games have a longer story.. Very beautiful soundtrack. Buy it. Just buy it. Especially now that it's 74 cents during steam sale, no reason to even hesitate - the graphics aren't amazing in the vid but when you're in it they work perfectly well. Basically Mad Max kinda stuff, the train goes, you shoot, you save your rockets for helicopters and try not to die.

Really good if you have a small room - again, it's not a great game but it's THREE DOLLARS (or when I got it, 74 cents.) Two games in I've gotten my monies worth and I plan to keep playing - yes it's another wave shooter but it's fun, it's easy to explain to people as a demo, and it works.

What more do you want, really?. really amazing and fun but gets a little too difficult for me over time, none the less, this is a true hidden gem for arcade racing fans an immediate buy.

As the name kind of give away its a bad game so there is at least honest advertising. Its a mediocre 2d sidescrolling shooter with among the most repetitive gameplay I have come across in a shooter game ever and the game has really poor pacing since the game goes on forever and ever before the first thing happen...and then you are all of a sudden on the end boss. The game has no music while you play at all and has a bunch of other strange design choices that really weirdly defended by the developer in a FAQ on the forums: <http://steamcommunity.com/app/235070/discussions/0/828939797184939390/>

The achievements in the game are fairly straight forward but has some missable stuff just towards the end so would hunt down the save folder location and duplicate your saves as you are getting close to the end in case you mess them up and overwrite your autosave forcing you to replay the entire game to be able to do things again. The most annoying achievement in the game is for dying 50 times which is surprisingly hard and actually is something you have to intentionally grind to get.

Time to 100%: 6 hours. \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665 Y O U. it look cool. Very beautiful, albeit short. This isn't really a game. It's more of a VR experience. You'll be done with the game in about 10-15 minutes. I got it on sale for $4.99 and thought it was worth it, but I don't think I'd be happy paying much more than that.. First rule of Jagged Alliance - Back in Action: Stop comparing the game to JA2.

I absolutely adored the original - but this game holds up well on its own. Lots of challenges and real time works well as you are able to go into a form of strategy mode.

I would have loved, if they had added more online mercs and new stuff. But it's still a great game.. Unlike most people this game works for me, not sure why but I have no problems running it. On my previous computer it would not even load up to the title screen, it was all Intel, my current computer is all AMD, could have something to do with it. Even though I can actually play this game I don't recommend it. It is terrible. Just, really, really, awful. Thank god I got it for 99 cents on sale and not the retail price.. Absolutely in love!

Love the recipes, the atmosphere, game mechanics..already learning how to make my first cocktails! :)

Although one drawback is I keep knocking the glass out of my hand and drop it on the floor\drop it in the ice basket as I wave my arms about busily serving up drinks!

Ended up spending a lot of time looking for things I dropped :(

The ice basket especially - I know I probably shouldnt do it this way but scooping ice into the cup by dunking the cup in the ice basket made me lose the cup in the basket very very often. Other than that, if i accidentally pass my hand through the counter with cup in hand, the cups drops somewhere again.

Also, would be nice if we could remove wrong garnishes.

These are minor details though. Overall love the game, great experience!

Also, would it be possible to have the option of using one of those measuring cup things? And a musher for the mojito mbe? . Enjoyable addition to FSX, specifically for those who know the area. It significantly enhanced my flying experience around the falls with many notable buildings and geography features rendered. Need to add the dumping scow and Brock's monument, but a great scenery addition none the less.. Simple and fun.
